Call to Worship and Prayer

Psalm 93

The Lord is king, he is robed in majesty; the Lord is robed, he is girded with strength. He has established the world; it shall never be moved; your throne is established from of old; you are from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O Lord, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their roaring. More majestic than the thunders of mighty waters, more majestic than the waves of the sea, majestic on high is the Lord! Your decrees are very sure; holiness befits your house, O Lord, forevermore.

Almighty God, we worship you for you are greater than any threat or danger we face. You are uncreated and unchanging, a loving and gracious King that has invited us into your kingdom. Lord God as we come before you in worship today be the king of our hearts and rule in our lives as we surrender to your will. Fill us afresh with your spirit. We pray in the powerful name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Prayer

Almighty God, today I choose to put my trust in you. Help me in the midst of feelings of fear to lift my eyes to you, to take refuge in you, to find strength in you, to restore my being in the life-giving spirit you pour out. Help me not to be overwhelmed, but to always know you are with me and you are greater.

And now I pray as Jesus taught his disciples ...

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation

but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours

now and for ever.

Amen.

Spend some time in prayer and pray for ...

... those close to you

... church family

... those in authority

... those who are unwell and overlooked

... the impact of the virus around the world

... for yourself

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. Do we as individuals and churches really desire to do God's will? Or are we only concerned with being saved from crisis?
2. How did Jesus' commitment to the Fathers will influence his prayers and life? How do our priorities influence our prayers and life?
3. God reminds us again and again through His word 'do not fear, for I am with you'. How is this a comfort when you are feeling fearful? What practical steps can you take to acknowledge God's presence with you so that fear will not distract us from his will?

All-Age talk & Challenge

We continue to think about 'finding God in the everyday' and this week's All-Age thought video can be found on our Facebook page:

Benediction

Ephesians 3:17-21

'... And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.'

Other resources ...

Many churches will be using platforms such as Facebook and YouTube to livestream services, sermons and prayer meetings this week.

For those who would appreciate this, we encourage you to explore them for yourselves.

Sharing Together: Sunday Service with Communion

We do hope you can join us via Zoom on Sunday 3rd May at 11am for a service of sharing together; sharing testimony and communion. As before, please have something to eat and drink to hand (it doesn't have to be bread and 'wine'!).

It would be great to have 3-4 people to share what God has done/is doing in their life to encourage one another and praise God together.

If you are able to share please contact Joe.

The meeting code for this is: 978 9592 0392
