Call to Worship and Prayer

Philippians 2: 5-11

⁵...have the same mind as Christ Jesus:
⁶who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; ⁷rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. ⁸And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death – even death on a cross! ⁹Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, ¹⁰that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, ¹¹and every tongue acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Prayer

As a church experiencing lockdown, most of our regular activities calendar has had to be replaced with alternatives and new approaches. The space that this creates provides an opportunity for each of us to come to God in prayer again, and ask what gifts he has given us specifically to contribute to the mission of his kingdom. Take some time to ask God what particular role / abilities he has envisioned you with, and intentionally listen to what how he is inspiring you to engage in service moving forward. (Just because you have always been involved in one area/way in the past, does not mean that he cannot reveal something new to you about serving in the season ahead).

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. In James 2 we see the link between faith and action. How does your faith impact what you do and how you serve?
2. What areas of church life have you previously served in? What acts of serving bring you joy? What do these things tell you about your spiritual gifting?
3. How might you use your particular gifting to build up the church in these changing and challenging times. How can we discern as a church the roles we all can bring?

All-Age

The Egans are bringing us our All-Age Thought with an illustration about working together.

Benediction

Ephesians 2:10

For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.'

May you learn to sit in stillness at the feet of Jesus, receiving grace for the moment you face, and hope for the days ahead. May you learn to lean into the promises and presence of God moment by moment and walk in the strength God gives for each step.
