Call to Worship and Prayer

Isaiah 59: 1-2, 12-13a, 15b, 16b

Surely the arm of the LORD is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear.

² But your iniquities have separated
you from your God;

your sins have hidden his face from you,
so that he will not hear.

¹² For our offenses are many in your sight,
and our sins testify against us.

Our offenses are ever with us,
and we acknowledge our iniquities:

¹³ ...turning our backs on our God,

¹⁵ The LORD looked and was displeased
that there was no justice.

¹⁶ ...so his own arm achieved salvation for him,
and his own righteousness sustained him.

*Lord, humble us today as we come to you,
confident of welcome through Jesus your son, despite our failings and flaws. Help us by your spirit to allow ourselves to be cleansed and restored through his righteousness. Create in us a clean heart, oh God, and renew a right spirit within us, that we might be equipped to walk again in your will and bring you glory.*

Amen.

Prayer

We're thinking today about prayerful repentance; for us personally, for us as a church, and for the wider world. In order to pray in this way, we need to consider how we might be living out of line with God's will in each area, and consciously bring those things to God, as we turn back to him and ask for help to walk again in his ways.

As an aid to this, if you are able, why not go for a walk (if not out and about, maybe in the garden or around the house). Every time you think of something we need to repent for: stop, say sorry, and turn around to go back in the other direction, actively repenting and acknowledging that we've been heading in the wrong direction in that area, and need to turn back to God and walk in his footsteps again.

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. Why should we see repentance as a source of hope rather than a matter of despair?
2. In what ways can our individual genuine repentance impact our church, our community and the world?
3. In Revelation 2 and 3 Jesus rebukes the church for losing their first love, compromising, tolerating sin, being superficial, lukewarm, and spiritually poor. Are these traits still seen in the church today?

All-Age

This week Ruth is bringing us our All-Age Thought with a watery illustration about repentance.

Benediction

May the peace of the Lord Christ go with you, wherever He may send you.

May He guide you through the wilderness, protect you through the storm.

May He bring you home rejoicing at the wonders He has shown you.

May He bring you home rejoicing once again into our doors.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen
