Call to Worship and Prayer

1 Peter 2:9-10

'But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.'

Prayer

This week why not try and join with others to pray. It may not be possible to meet in person, but certainly over the phone or online. Take time to offer up prayers of intercession for people place and situations that God lays on your heart. (If you usually come to a church meeting, anyway, then try to add an additional occasion to pray with others to the week if possible).

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. The primary focus of the Early Church prayer was on God and his equipping rather than requests to remove the problems they faced. How can you grow in 'taking a long look at God, and a brief glance at your problems?'
2. Have you been filled with the Holy Spirit? If so, how do you know?
3. What threats are there to the church nowadays? How can we help overcome them, and support those Christians who are most at risk?

All-Age

Ruth brings us our All-Age Thought considering why we are told to pray together using sweeties. The video can be found in the usual place on our YouTube channel / Facebook:

Benediction

Romans 15:5-6

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
