Call to Worship and Prayer

Romans 1:20

²⁰ For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities – his eternal power and divine nature – have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.

'The basic reality of God is plain enough. Open your eyes and there it is! By taking a long and thoughtful look at all that God has created, people have always been able to see what their eyes as such can't see:

His eternal power, and the mystery of his divine being.'

Prayer

Pray the Lord's prayer and pause after each line to praise God for something linked to that line. Spend some time this week using the Lord's prayer to guide your worship.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Amen.

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. How would you explain to someone non-Christian what worship is?
2. Even though we are scattered as a church at this time, we are still each called to be worshippers. In what ways can we express our worship together 'in spirit and truth' (John 4:23)?
3. What things do you find hinder you in playing your part within corporate worship together with others? How might you overcome these?

Benediction

John 4:23

²³ ...the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him.

May we go into our week as a people giving thanks to the Lord and displaying his glory in all we do in Jesus name, Amen.
