Call to Worship and Prayer

Hebrews 1:2-3

²...he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe. ³The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

Prayer

'We can never match your perfection, Lord. Try as we might we stumble and fall, grasping for that which we feel is unobtainable. We are nothing if not consistent in our falling from your grace. For you are perfect love and we most certainly are not. Perfect love casts out fear, and we are fearful, fearful of the unknown, fearful of failure.'

'Son, I never ask for the impossible, I never set a goal that cannot be reached, a mountain that cannot be climbed, even by those of a nervous disposition. All I ask is that you come to me as you are at this moment in time, and accept me as I AM. There is no part of you that cannot be made clean, renewed, restored. Don't stumble, hold out your hand instead. That's not too much to ask, is it?'

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. What areas of church life have you previously served in? What acts of serving bring you joy? What do these things tell you about your spiritual gifting?
2. How might you use your spiritual gifting to build up the church in these changing and challenging times. How can we discern as a church the roles we all can bring?
3. In James 2 we see the link between faith and action. How does your faith impact what you do and how you serve?

Benediction

Hebrews 13:20-21

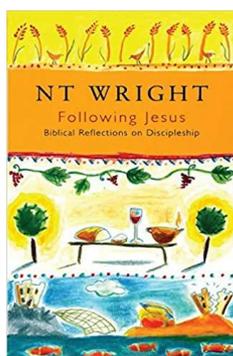

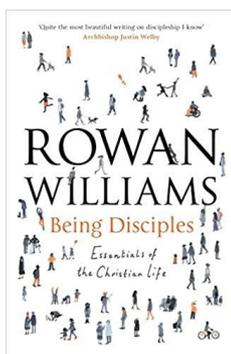

²⁰ Now may the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, ²¹ equip you with everything good for doing his will, and may he work in us what is pleasing to him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
