Prayer

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,

grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. What Bible stories illustrate to you the power of reconciliation and peace-making?
2. In what ways do you think your own life displays peace as fruit of the Spirit? And in what ways do you need to pray for more of this than is present now?
3. What are the reasons why people are so often not gentle toward others? When do you personally find it most difficult to exercise gentleness to others, and why?
4. What metaphors are used in the bible to describe God's gentleness?

Benediction

Matthew 17: 21-23 Jesus prays for all believers

My prayer is...²¹ that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. ²² I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one – ²³ I in them and you in me – so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me... Amen.
