Call to Worship and Prayer

Titus 3:4-7

But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour appeared, ⁵ he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, ⁶ whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Saviour, ⁷ so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life.

Prayer

Dear God,

Please help me to have more self-control. Train me Lord, like an athlete to be strong and determined. Feed me with your truth in the scriptures to make me healthy. May I exercise muscles of forgiveness, patience and peace-making. Lord, increase my stamina to give out to those in need. And may I be freed from past hurts and confusions so that I can run free.

Come fill my life with your resurrection hope!
Amen.

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. In light of Titus 2:11-14, how does the grace of God teach and train us in godliness?
2. In what areas of your life are you aware of a need for more self-control? How might you work with the Spirit to increase it?
3. How do you relate to the different translations of the Greek word for 'patience' in Galatians 5 (long-tempered forbearance, long-suffering, steadfastness)? To what extent does your consideration of these highlight particular relationships / situations where the fruit of 'patience' is required and growing (or should be)?

Benediction

1 Thessalonians 5:23-24

²³ May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do it.
