Call to Worship

Matthew 7:9-11

⁹ 'Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰ Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? ¹¹ If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!

Prayer Response

Jehovah-Jireh, God who provides, we are thankful that no situation is out of your control. You own it all, holding everything in your hands, and we thank you that we can trust you to know our need, before we even come to you and ask. You alone can move mountains to make a way for your children. We ask for your answer, in your timing, in your plan, to be given for every need that is weighing our hearts down. Forgive us for doubting you, for worrying, and for trying so hard to work everything out on our own. Help us in our unbelief to trust you more. You are able to accomplish far greater things than we can ask or imagine, making the impossible possible. We thank you in advance for your miracles, and your provision that paves out pathways for those who love you. Thank you for the abundance of blessing and goodness you have already stored up for us. Help us Lord to trust you this day, and every day, as we lean on you, and receive your peace to be content in all circumstances. In Jesus name, Amen

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. In what ways has God provided for you when you had a particular need, and what did you learn from the experience?
2. God sometimes provides for the needs of others through the generosity and service of His people. How do we as a church embody this?
3. As Christians, how should we apply the principal "Jehovah Jireh" to our own stewardship of finance including our budgeting and spending?
4. It has been said "provide a man with a fish and he will eat that night, provide him with a net and he will feed his family for years to come" How should this principle guide our approach to mission work and support at home and abroad?
