Lamentations 3:22-23

Because of the Lord's great love, we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.

Prayer Response

El Roi,
You are the God who sees me. When I feel ushered to the side-line's or forgotten by friends, family, and co-workers, I know you're working behind the scenes.

God, as I review over past weeks, even years, I've witnessed you working in miraculous ways. I know you have seen me in the past, when no one else did. And so, I can fully trust that you will continue to care for me, even when I've entered the darkest valley.

Thank you that You care for every human being, no matter how much society has rejected them or placed no value on them. Jesus, through your example, you saw those who society had turned a blind eye. We praise you for your faithfulness and mercy.

In the same way that you saw Hagar in her wilderness, I ask that you see me today. That you come alongside me in my struggle, and that you grant me your peace. Remind me of your good deeds from the past, so that I may, too, hope in my future.

Amen.

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. Compare Genesis 15:1-6 and 16:1-6. What is the approach, solution and result of the problem?
2. In your own challenges of life, how can you develop patience?
3. The Hebrew name 'God who sees' has a similar meaning to name 'The Lord is my shepherd'. What do you learn about God's character from these names and what comfort can we take from thinking about this name of God?

Benediction

Jude 24-25

To him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy— to the only God our Saviour be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and forevermore! Amen.
