Prayer Response

Dear God,
We confess our need for you today. We need your healing, your grace and your peace. We need hope restored. We need to be reminded that you work on behalf of those you love, constantly, powerfully, completely. Forgive us for trying to fix our situations all on our own. Forgive us for running all different directions and spinning our wheels to find help, when true help and healing must be found first in You. Forgive us for forgetting how much we need you, above everyone and everything else. We come to you and bring you the places we are hurting. You see where no one else is able to fully see or understand. You know the pain we've carried. The burdens. The cares. You know where we need to be set free. We ask for your healing and grace and peace to cover every broken place. Every wound. Every heartache. Thank you that you are Able to do far more than we could ever imagine. Thank you for your Mighty Power that acts on behalf of your children. We reach out to you, and know that you are restoring and redeeming every place of difficulty, every battle, for your greater glory.

We commit to your hands now those in our lives who need for healing and restorative love, grace and peace. ...

In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Questions to ponder this week ...

1. The Israelites held back from fully trusting in God to provide for their needs and lead them forward. In what ways do we do likewise in our lives when we seek to keep control?
2. Are there areas in our lives where we have suffered disappointment or unrealised expectations of God, that we need to bring before God to receive cleansing from bitterness and restoration in our relationship with Him?
3. What is your experience of Jehovah Rophi? And how do you understand and anticipate the eternal healing that we receive through 'His wounds' (Isaiah 53:4-6)?

Benediction

1 Peter 5:10

And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.
